We're looking for a group of Launch & Elevate students who desire to do more than just attend service and who have a desire to help Launch & Elevate thrive in our new student building! We want you involved and here's how:

Individuals applying for this role will be on a team with a select group of students whose main objective and mission is to greet students who are new to Launch & Elevate, help them get checked in and also help them get involved and acquainted with other students before Sunday morning services begin. These individuals will execute their role with excitement and eagerness to greet and meet ALL students who may be new or may be sitting to the side, away from all of the games or hanging out with other people. Ways in which these individuals will help students with getting acquainted with Launch & Elevate is by striking up a conversation with the other student, playing a game with them and some other friends, introducing them to a group of other students in the common spaces or in the courtyard. The list goes on and on. Your role as a building host for Launch & Elevate is to make all students who enter our new student building feel welcomed and included!
